THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 17, 1859. Mr. Ready and Mr. Bell-The Naval Investigation.

Mr. Bell having sold himself and his party to the Black Republicans, is determined to inflict the and though it is a most humiliating confe sion, we severest jenalties upon all those who refuse to sub- feel called upon to make it. We try to excuse the posed upon them. The Banner of this city, which meeting, but there is nothing to palhate or extenuis the chief agent of his vengeance, is already pre- at a their conduct, and we are not disposed to hearld garing the guillotine for Hon CRAS. READY, who it forth to the world that there was tremen lone ex has bo d'y resisted the mandate of the great die a) or of the Sau hern Opposition, and has dured to make of the Sou Bern Opposition, and has dured to main- our friends, when it was apparent is every one of Mr. Butt and his B ack Republican allies.

So completely are the symiathies of Mr. Butt energies of any one, save a Democrat, to siterd a and his organ enlisted with their Northern Aboli- meeting of the Opposition in Maury county. The tion friends, that they are resolved to sustain them | meagreness of the crowd on Monday was enough to even at the sacrifice of their own State representatives. Mr. Buth knows that his hopes of the Pres idency must rest with the Black Republicans. He knows that his party in Tennessee is powerless; and | We regret exceedingly that such "is the character he is consequently eager to conditate Northern supas a truthful journal st, we feel is to be our duty to port at the sacrifice of the ablest and most influential of his former friends.

In the late Naval Investigation it was important for the success of the Abolition cause, that the calumnies which had been circulated againt the Secrebers of the House should be sustained by a majority of the committee. That committee consisted of two Democrats, one Fillmore American organized on a more impartial plan. Only two of its members were Democrats, while two of them were among the most bitter, unsurupulous and uncompromising enemies of the administration. Mr RNADY, the fith member of the committe , was op posed, as our readers know, to the election of Mr. Buchanan, and was not likely to be swayed by any feelings of favori ism or partiality for the Democracy. After a laborious and rigid investigation, in the course of which the enemies of the Administration raked every tink of corruption and crime for charges against the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. READY united with Mr. Bocock and Mr. GROBERTCH in acquitting the Secretary of all blame in the premiscs. This act has brought upon him the fierce rage at his retellious course on the Kansas bill and the Lecompton constitution Such refractory conduct can no longer be tolerated by the ex-Senator sentence. The mulice of Mr. Bell and his abolition offence. He has refused to sanction the foul slanders which an abolition caucus originated, to break down the administration, and to cost odium upon the Banner, in discarding the testimony of the majority of the committee and accepting the statements of a partisan Black Republican minority, on any other ground, than a disposition on the part of Mr. Bunt and his followers to testify their abject and absolute subserviency to their sectional allies at the North. Why should the Banner otherwise attempt to discredit the testimony of Mr. READY, a gentleman whom that paper supported for Congress, and deliberately accempted to over up corruption and fraud for an "unworthy purpose?" Why should the Banner accept the testimony of such men as SHER-MAN and Recents-open and avowed anti-slavery meu-in preference to the testimony of an tonorable and apright representative of its own party, confirmed by the concurrent evidence of a Southern Democrat and a sound national man from the North, uniess the Banner feels that the political fortunes of its favorite leader is identified with the Black Republican party? There is nothing in the fac's as presented in the reports, to justify the Banner's conclusion that the unjurity have attempted "to white-wash the conduct of the Secretary" for "an unworshy purpose." An apprejudiced mind would have arrived at a very different opinion from a careful investigation of the case. The malignity of the minerity appears in every line of their report, while the majority furnish a clear, candid statement of the facts developed in their investigations. The Banner however, adopts the conclusions of the minority, and repeats charges against the Secretary of the Navy coratic party and of the South.

The specific ground of the Banner's attack on the for furnishing machinery for a sloop-of-war, then conduct in this matter, and berates him in language which is worthy of the fish market. The Banner having collected all the ammunition which the Black Republican minority report furnished, fires away at the administration in the following explosive sea-

It fur. | road. ther appears that the plan of the bid which was lower was condemned by every member of the board, and the plan of Merrick & Sons was approved by every member of it. Merrick & Sans are not politicians, and never undertake to influence their sorkmen. Two of the three incline to the opposition In connection with this, a letter from Colonel Patterson to the President (recommending the firm, not for this particular contract, for they bid for many) was exhibited; but it fully appears from the testino ny generally, and the statement of the Secretary of the Navy, that the President took no part in itmade no recommendation of any hid for this or any other contract during his Administration; but merely in the course of business, as was shown by the testimeny, referred this letter by the common and usual endorsement, to the Navy Department, to which the subject properly belonged, the practice being to refer tetters on business to the proper De-

Rusny Bos coch and Gibesbick who investigated the muter maturely, and may be regarded as capable of forming a correct opinion in the premises as our contemporary of the Banner. They may possibly be considered as free from predjudice or partiality in forming their judgment as the two bitter partisans who conducted the investigation on the part of the has declined he mission to ligata.

Black Republicans, or the Editors of the Bonner BETTER, who concur with them.

But it is evident that Mr. REARY is to be sacrificed for his dischedience to Mr. BELL's wishes, and his resistance to the proposed transfer of himself and party to the Black Republicans. He has chosen to act and vote with the National Democracy in preference to the Abelitionists, and he must expect to be visited with the denunciations of Mr. Ban, and his followers.

The KnoW-Nothing Meeting in Maury. The Columbia Mirror gives rather a discouraging account of the convention of its party in Maury. Their meetings throughout the State are represent. BUTTER ed as very dismal affairs. The party is rapidly approaching its dissolution. Coldness has seized upon its limbs, and it is lying prostrate and pulseless on the bed of death. It is very heartless in the Demeeracy to be laughing at it, as the Mirror says they did, under such circumstances as these. Read The Mirror's account of the Maury meeting :

The Opposition held a meeting in this place lat Monday to appoint delegates to the Nashville Convention, and candor, not inclination, compels us to state that it was a cold, passionless, chilling, tame affair from beginning to end. We are not bound by any code of murality we have ever read, to say that it was anything else than we have just described it, mit to the humiliating conditions which he has im- members of our party for the manifest indifference and co doess shown by them in relation to this tain the honor of his State and the interests of his present that there were not over one hundred persons the constlinency and opposition to the roles and wishes sometimenty and opposition to the roles and wishes sometimenty and opposition to the roles and wishes were Democrats, manifestly laughing immederately at our expense. It is indeed enough to parlyze the dampen the ardor of the most cuthusiastic speaker, and we think it due to our friends abroad to let them know precisely how the affair passed off, how ever of jectionable our course may scom to others of the meeting, but facts are stubborn things, and

The eleventh annual report of the Mobile and Ohio Railcoad Company has been published. This read is designed to run from Mobile, in Alabama, to Caire, Illinois, at the junction of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and will be, when finished, the longest railroad in the coun ry. At the close of 1858 there were 3334 miles of track laid. The net earnings the past year were equal to 8) per cent. on its entire cost, including equipments. The increase of net earnings per mile in 1858, over those of 1857, is nearly 26 per cent. The cotton transport in 1857 was 88,768 bales, and in 1858, 152,528 bales-an increase of 63,820 bales. Six y eight miles of track were laid last year, and eighty seven miles at the north end put in running order. The receipts at the South end of the road, with an ordinary cotton year, are estimated at a million of deliars.
